

Job Office.

BOOK, CARD AND JOB
Printing Office, East Mill, Idaho City.

THE Proprietors beg leave to announce to the people of Idaho City and vicinity, that they have a varied and complete assortment of

PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL
JOB AND CARD TYPES,

which make their facilities for executing all kinds of Plain and Ornamental Printing unsurpassed by any office in the upper country. All orders for jobs will be executed with neatness and dispatch.

JOB WORK MUST BE PAID FOR ON DELIVERY

CITY NEWS.

VEGETABLES.—If you want vegetables, "fresh from the Valley," go to Bell & Rowe's Storehouse, opposite City Hotel, where you will find any quantity "cheap for cash."

RESIDENTS living on Moore's creek will do well to read the notice of Stevens & Smith. Their store at Pine Grove is well stocked with goods and merchandise which can be bought now at very low rates. The building is also for sale.

"MAN ABOUT TOWN," referring last week to the change in the Sheriff's office, erred in speaking of Mr. John Gorman. Mr. Gorman holds the responsible position of Under Sheriff, and not Deputy Sheriff as therein stated. He makes a fine officer.

BARNUM'S Confectionery and Restaurant, on south side of Main street, is one worthy of public patronage. It has been but recently opened, but is already becoming a favorite resort. Everything is neat and presented in the most appetizing style. See advertisement.

Justice's Court before Justice Burns. The People vs. Thos. McKay, charged with assault to do great bodily harm to Michael Dunn. Found not guilty and prisoner discharged.

John Patterson and T. M. McCallam alias Soap—charged with assault on each other. Found guilty and each fined $20 and costs.

CLAYTON'S LOTTERY.—The prizes in this lottery are on exhibition at the office of Mr. Clayton at the Colorado Saloon. The list embraces a well-chosen assortment of beautiful jewelry. The prizes they are held at, are certainly remarkably low. As the number of tickets in this lottery is small, the holders have a fair chance to win something of value. The last lottery of Mr. Clayton gave universal satisfaction, and we think this will merit similar approbation.

TIN AND IRON WARE.—Mr. Chick has lately returned from the lower country with a large selection of material and stock for his Tin Shop on Main street, near the Post Office. He met with a heavy loss by the sinking of the Brother Jonathan. Another supply was immediately forwarded from San Francisco and is now arriving at the store. Mr. Chick is an old and worthy citizen here, and the establishment has a goodly reputation. It is an excellent place to find the material to kill winter with. Mr. Chick, Jr., goes to Boise City.

IN JUSTICE COURT before Justice McGowan. Sept. 13th.—The People vs. J. Phillips—complaint for assault on M. M. Chipman. Adjudged guilty and fined $20 and costs. Notice of appeal given to District Court.

The People vs. Wm. T. Rollins, charged with exhibiting deadly weapons in a rude, angry and threatening manner. Plead guilty and fined $100.

The People vs. Collins—same offense—settled and satisfaction entered by complaining witness.

The People vs. James Scott, charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses. Found guilty and fined $300. Committed to jail in default of payment for three months.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

I wish that I had a talent for prying into other people's affairs and letting my own go by the board. But I am not a Yankee and therefore cannot do so. Local matters do not agree with me where they do not come within my own locality; the most laborious task I have is to write up this column, and serious ideas are frequently entertained of throwing up the sponge.

Among the most enterprising men in town is Mr. John Clancy who built a fine lot of improvements on his ground before the fire, completing them just in time to see them before they were destroyed. Now he rebuilds with a splendid brick house in a manner which would be a credit to anybody in the Northern country. He either has more energy or more capital than most men, but he appears to go along just so smooth and easy always driving a brisk business and minding his own.

If my father had a son grown and that son was me, and I had a wife, she should keep a hotel no way you could fix it up, in Idaho.

Have you ever been down to Marshall's to see his chickens, turkeys, pigeons, ducks, pigs, etc.? And the fine houses he has provided for each class of the above mentioned produce? If not, then you are far behind the times. Why it is really a fact, Marshall will get rich at his prompt and thrifty manner of just merely spending his leisure moments; while hundreds of you are struggling about, idling, whining and bumbling your way through the world under the impression that there is nothing you can do. Marshall can live like a king on eggs, roast pig, squabs, fresh milk and butter, broiled chicken, stuffed turkey, &c., while you and I would be arrested for vagrancy, or taken before Burns and requested to show cause why we don't lie down and die.

NEW DEFINITIONS.—Everybody—one who does nothing right in his own affairs, and ought to be sent to the Willamette.

Grief.—To have a young sweetheart.

Sorrow.—Not having an old one.

Despair.—Old maids hating the men.

Honesty.—Not having the money to pay a bill when called on.

Ambition.—Aspiring to reach the county hospital up on the hill.

Energy.—Growing to the height of six feet.

Decision.—Any time within a year.

Truth.—Not saying anything.

Firmness.—Open to everybody.

towns up there. Some attempt has been made by the Mill Company to keep builders away but there is no power or law which can disturb anybody up there in the peaceful possession of any improvements he may see fit to make, the quartz kings to the contrary notwithstanding.

Mr. Murphy, Esq., is intending to leave for the States in a few days. Everybody knows Mike, and all will wish him a pleasant journey and safe return.

We learn that A. O. Bowen, Esq., our ex-Sheriff, would have resigned his laborious and thankless position sooner than he did, but wished to remain and stand the brunt of the vicissitudes, if there was to be any danger, and see law and order fully maintained before vacating his office.

Every one must admit that the office under Mr. Bowen's administration had one of the best organized and efficient "gangs" that any county in a western territory ever possessed.

The St. Louis Opera Troupe are expected to arrive soon and open at Mr. Pinney's theatre.

The Committee are making preparations for a select and fashionable party at the Masonic dancing room to be given soon.

There is a big rush of travel to the South Boise and Yuba mines over the trail, which is in splendid order for saddle animals.

Hon. Frank Campbell has returned from below looking fine as usual.

The weather warm and pleasant. Flour advancing. Everybody healthy. Vegetables scarce and high. Money tight, which is all right. All's well!

NOTES BY A LADY TRAVELER.

Surely the mantle of nature's loveliness is spread over this country as a garment of many colors. In travelling through this Territory as well as that of Montana I could not refrain from exclaiming, that this most assuredly must have been the "Promised Land of Israel," the chosen spot on earth with God.

I shall not attempt to give a description of my journey, and I fear it will be an act of supererogation to attempt to give an idea of those majestic mountains, whose grandeur and whose glory have so long been the theme of the painter's pencil and the poet's lyre. Never shall I forget when my spirit plunged in the beauty and sublimity of the first snow clad and venerable looking mountain I came to. I paused involuntarily, completely enraptured with enthusiastic admiration, wonder and awe; it was truly a realization of one of the magnificent dreams of my youthful imagination; to stand and behold those lofty mountains towering for thousands of feet in the air, with the snow which never for one moment hides its face the year round from the human vision, sparkling and glittering in the sunshine from their peaks—with the tall, ever green pines, cedars, and firs, rearing their stately heads upwards seeming living monuments to point us to a better land.

Most assuredly such a scene would invite to serious, sublime, lofty and holy meditations, and made us feel our own unworthiness, our utter insignificance and great inferiority to that Being who spoke into existence the world and all pertaining thereto by a single word.

And then the splendid, the magnificent streams of water which burst from the mountain sides and form in beautiful rivers and brooklets to irrigate the land and quench the thirst of the weary traveler as he wanders over the deserts, the valleys, the hills and mountains seeking the promised land of gold and plenty. "Where does he find it?" (perhaps the reader would ask;) my answer would be, everywhere. On every mountain which adorns the lovely valleys of this country you can hardly pick up a stone upon them that is not interspersed with "gold," that precious metal which allures the eye and often while it is a great blessing in alleviating the wants of the poor and needy and giving aid and comfort to the sick and distressed of God's people, leads to destruction and everlasting ruin.

But pardon me reader this is a digression. Of all things the most awe inspiring that has met my view in this country is a storm out in the wild woods; particularly in the neighborhood of high mountains, (I witnessed one such a scene as this) the lurid lightning (something by the way I believe is rather rare here) playing among their tops, the thunder rumbling and then bursting with a terrific crash against their sides, seems hurled back again with double violence; rain falling in torrents, in sheets; a black pall hangs over everything which is ever and anon torn asunder by forked lightning. The whole earth seems as if rent in twain by the all powerful arm of Heaven's Artillery.

'Tis at such a time with the grand drama of Nature passing before you, and the distant mountains frowning upon you that you feel how far in her simplicity and primeval splendor she exceeds the descriptions of the most vivid imaginations.

But kind reader the somnolent God whose opiate wand has so long hovered over the inmates of our quiet and peaceful little cottage, is also gathering around me causing me to feel as if I desired to wish you "pleasant dreams" and a very "good night."
